EXPLORING THE UNTAMED CORNERS OF THE COUNTY

SPECIAL ADVANCE PURCHASE OFFER

Lancashire: a journey into the wild is a superb new book written by John Lamb, Senior Conservation Officer for the Lancashire Wildlife Trust. It is due out in summer 2018, allowing us to give you chance to pre-order your copy(ies) at a very special price. This beautiful book is an exploration and celebration of modern Lancashire's unspoilt and lesser-known corners. Full of fascinating facts, figures and insights, complemented by many colour images, and produced to a very high standard, the book is designed to be both informative and lovely to look at. It is written in an accessible and lively style and will delight anyone who has an interest in the natural history of our region. After publication it will cost £19.99, but if you order before 30th April 2018, you can obtain your copy(ies) at the pre-publication subscription offer price of only £15 (plus £1.95 towards postage), and you can get your name printed in the book in a List of Subscribers.

For further information and updates about the book's progress (but not to order, see how to do that below) visit the publisher's website at www.carnegiepublishing.com. Don't miss out on this unique opportunity!
